

William W. Turton III

Washington, D.C.
turtonw17@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Rep. Mark E. Green, M.D. (TN-07)

Washington, DC

Legislative Assistant

June 2020 – present

- Provide research and recommendations on a diverse portfolio of domestic policy issues for the congressman, ranging from homeland security and constitutional law to tax and economic policy.
- Prepare the Congressman for Committee on Homeland Security hearings by drafting remarks and researching witness testimony.
- Draft and revise outgoing correspondence.
- Meet with constituents, advocacy groups, and policy experts to discuss policy concerns and pending legislation.

Legislative Correspondent

September 2019 – May 2020

- Managed all incoming and outgoing correspondence for the office and draft responses to constituent letters.
- Covered a portfolio of legislative issues (education, labor, taxes) as a member of the legislative policy team.
- Drafted executive correspondence, newsletters, commendations, and talking points for event briefings.

EDUCATION

Hillsdale College, Van Andel Graduate School of Statesmanship, Master of Arts – Politics, Class of 2019

Clemson University, Bachelor of Arts – Political Science/Economics, Class of 2017 (cum laude)

- Lyceum Scholars Program - Clemson Institute for the Study of Capitalism

INTERNSHIPS

Senate Judiciary Committee

Washington, DC

Press Intern

Summer 2019

Hillsdale College Kirby Center

Washington, DC

Graduate Research Assistant

Summer 2018

The Heritage Foundation

Washington, DC

Intern – B. Kenneth Simon Center for Principles and Politics

Summer 2017

The Federalist Society

Washington, DC

Research Assistant

Summer 2016

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF), Areté Academy

Summer 2018

- Participated in a week-long training summit about religious liberty, public policy, and constitutional law.

Heritage Foundation Speechwriting Fellowship

Spring 2020

- Learned and practiced the fundamentals of writing a policy speech through an intensive seminar series.

TFAS Public Policy Fellowship

Fall 2020 – Spring 2021

- Monthly meetings with other young professionals in DC to discuss the fundamental questions and challenges that a free society must address in order to flourish.